

Monday Morning Trauma: Advanced Reconstruction Techniques (Cadaveric)

Wednesday, February 26, 2014

12:30 – 5:00 pm

4 Continuing Education Contact Hours

Maximum enrollment: 25 registrants

12:00 – 12:30 pm

Check-in

12:30 – 1:30 pm

Lecture/Refreshments

1:30 – 5:00 pm

Wet Lab

- Plate Fixation Technology
 - Understanding the Different Constructs (including locking plate)
 - Surgical Indications
 - Understanding Who Doesn't Need One
- Phalanx and Metatarsal Fractures (not 5th metatarsal)
 - Technique Pearls (including locking plate)
- 5th Metatarsal Fracture
 - Midshaft
 - Diaphyseal Stress/Jones
 - Avulsion
- Subtle Lisfranc Injury
 - Ligamentous
 - Acute vs. Chronic
 - Surgical Decision Making (ORIF vs Arthrodesis)
- Navicular Fracture
 - Stress
 - Body
 - Non-Union

Monday Morning Trauma Learning Objectives

- Effectively evaluate and manage office based trauma patients with straightforward to challenging injuries.
- Gain knowledge in the selection of appropriate plate constructs and execution of internal fixation techniques.
- Understand the principles of surgical timing in office based fractures of the foot.
- Gain a better understanding of risks associated with trauma surgery of the foot.

Faculty

Scott F. Jorgensen, DPM, FACFAS, Chair

Michael S. Downey, DPM, FACFAS

Mark A. Hardy, DPM, FACFAS

John T. Marcoux, DPM, FACFAS

Jason R. Miller, DPM, FACFAS

Matthew D. Sorenson, DPM, FACFAS

Fees

$175 — ACFAS Member

$250 — Non-ACFAS Member

Note: Course content and faculty are subject to change.