

FELLOWSHIP POSITION OPEN FOR PALO ALTO MEDICAL FOUNDATION'S DEPARTMENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE: FOOT & ANKLE

An ACFAS Recognized Fellowship Initiative Program. Dr. Saxena's practice specializes in sports medicine and foot and ankle surgery, incorporated into the Palo Alto Medical Foundation multi-specialty Sports Medicine Department in 1993. Some of the numerous benefits to working at an ACFAS Recognized Fellowship Initiative Program include: reduced ACFAS Membership Fee to participating Fellows and Provision of a Fellowship Certificate. Visit www.acfas.org/fellowshipinitiative/ and www.panf.org for more details.

- Must have proof of current CA Medical License
- Top Residents preferred
- Dedicated to learning & going the extra mile
- Reliable
- Great people skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced sports medicine

IF YOU MEET THE ABOVE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS, PLEASE EMAIL YOUR CV AND THREE LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION TO HEYSAX@AOL.COM

Amol Saxena, DPM

Dept. of Sports Medicine, Clark Bldg., 3rd Floor
795 El Camino Real
Palo Alto, CA 94301
Office: 650-853-2943
Email: Heysax@aol.com

Additional Updated Info: Assistant Director, W. Cabell Adams, DPM, FACFAS

Research requirement: minimum 2 publishable papers, eligible for funds through ACFAS Region

Rotation in Germany 1-3 wks possible. Some sports event coverage on weekends possible